

Double H Ranch

WEDDINGS

AN INTIMATE CEREMONY UNDER THE OAKS

Double H Ranch is a state-of-the-art ranch, home to New-England style Stonepine Equestrian, and located on the historic Stonepine Estate's 400+ secluded acres of gently rolling oak-studded hills in scenic Monterey County.

Blessed with the temperate climate and renowned natural beauty, a wedding at Double H invites you to celebrate and share your love in an intimate, secluded, pristine, and picturesque world-class setting.

In 1929, Helen Crocker Russell of the San Francisco banking family, and her husband, Henry Potter Russell, built Stonepine Estate. It was originally named “Double H Ranch” after Helen and Henry.

Today, the honorary “Double H” namesake refers to this ranch—full of Central Coast charm—housed within what is now known as Stonepine Estate, named for the majestic stone pines growing throughout the property.

Double H Ranch houses a fully operational equestrian center that is home to 40+ horses, a four-furlong race track, and multiple jumping & dressage arenas.

Stonepine's Equestrian Center, once the country's oldest thoroughbred farm west of the Mississippi, was established by Mr. Russell and has been in service for over 90 years.

Double H Ranch features numerous event spaces and accommodations so you can curate the event that most speaks to your unique love story.

With three separate residences, a game room, bar, pavilion, miles of private walking and biking trails, and more, rich pockets of equine history are present at every turn.
